yesterday on Norwich avenue. Motorists seem to have had luck on this stretch of road.

NORWICH TOWN

The Drop-In class of the First Congregational Sunday school, Mrs. Gordon F.
Bailey teacher, held a very successful lawn social Friday evening on the church grounds. A delicious supper consisting of a variety of salads, rolls, choice cake, doughnuts and coffee was served by members of the class. There was a very large attendance and everything was disposed of. Some partook of the good things in the chapel, but the majority enjoyed the supper on the lawn, which was on the satisfactory plan. Fifty-five dollars was the amount realized, which was most encouraging to the class and others interested, as the supper was arranged for the benefit of the church repair fund.

In reference to the sale by the Junior Endeavor society of the First Congregational church, through a misunderstanding it was noted that the money from the sale was to be added to the church repair fund. The amount which was larger than previously announced, is to go in the treasury of the Junior society, to be disposed of in various ways, as usually has been the custom. This society is composed of a company of young folks who are most ambitious and faithful in all their undertakings.

the home of his uncle and aunt for three weeks, returned home with his father.

Following a stay of two weeks at Fisher's Island, Mrs. Albert Smith and Master Albert Smith returned Sunday evening to their home on Town street.
They were accompanied by Mrs. Smith's Town, is the guest of her cousins, Mr. and where she chaperoned a party of young men and women.

man.

a caller in Norwich Town Sunday. Mr.
Harris, who is an expert mechanical engineer, was one of the first young men from Springfield to volunteer for service in the world war, having faithfully served overseas for 18 months. Upon his enlistment he was sent to Fort Slocum, N. Y., thence to Chicago and later to France.
Mr. Harris returned to the United States with the Transportation corps, 64th company, of which he was a member, on the S. S. George Washington, which conveyed President Wilson's party home.

Masters Edward and William Riley will return to their home in Bridgeport tomorrow (Tuesday) after being guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Wette of East Town street, Edward having passed the summer and William the month of August at the Wette home.

spent a day at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Peck, of Otisbando avenue.

City, N. J., is the guest for a few days of

FAIR RACING

According to track followers, well versed in horse racing, the three events on the race programme at the 66th annual fair of the New London County Agricultural Society, which opened on Labor day at the Norwich Fair Grounds, rank among the best seen at the county fair years past.

Hartford and New Haven horses carried off first money in two of the races, 2.15 pace and 2.30 trot, while first money in the other event, a county race, purse $200, went to Torment, b. s. owned by Milton Mitchell of Montville.

First honors in the 2.15 pace, which was the first event of the afternoon, went to Baron's Bell, m. owned by P. E. Shares of New Haven, and in the 2.30 trot, which went four heats, first honors were carried by Silver Springs, b. g. owned by Richard Williams of Hartford.

Vandeville Between Heats.

Between the heats and races the thousands that filled the grandstand and bleachers, and crowded along the fence on both sides of the track, were given an exhibition of high class van-deville interspersed with well arranged concert programme, by Tubbs' military band, John M. Swahn, leader, Edward T. Connelly, the well known Norwich lyric tenor, entertained the huge crowd with group of popular songs, accompanied by the band.

It was just a few minutes past 2 o'- clock when Starter J. C. Witter of Danielson announced that the opening event would be the first heat in the 2.15 pace.
With Mr. Witter in the stand were Chauncey McFarland of Willimantic, Lyman L. Chapman of Norwich and William C. Lebonan of Lebanon, and Charles Tirrell, clerk of the course.

The 2.15 Pace.

There were four starters in the 2.15 pace, purse $500, the remainder of the horses having been drawn. In this race first money went to Baron's Bell, ro. m. owned by P. E. Shares of New Haven, second money went to Patsy Chatham, b. g. owned by Nelson Fontaine of Taft-ville, third money went to Normandie S., blk. g. owned by Mr. Smith of Plainfield, and fourth and last money went to Easter Night, b. m. owned by Richard Williams of Hartford.

In each of the three heats Baron's Bell took the lead, finishing first in the first and second heats, but dropped back to third place in the last heat. Normandie S., who finished third in the first and second heats, shot ahead of Patsy Cham-tham in the third heat and finished second. Easter Night finished fourth in all three heats.

The summary:

Montville Horse Wan County Race.
A light drizzle was falling as the four horses entered in the county race, purse $200, appeared on the track but before the heat was finished the sun was again shining brightly. In this race the horses were Torment, Milton Mitchell, Mont-ville, Edward M. b. g. George E. Hodges, Lebanon, and Little Boy b. g. Arthur Williams, Lebanon.

At Starter Witter had scored them several times, the drivers finally made good getaway, Torment taking the lead almost before the first turn was reached.
The Montville horse maintained the lead and the other three were fairly well spread along the track on the home stretch. Torment finished first in all three heats, winning the race, and first money, Reward M. taking second money.

The 2.30 Trot.

While the five starters in the 2.30 trot were trying to make good getaway, Sanhat, owned by F. L. Shares of New Haven, went on the rampage and broke the check line. The broken check line was quickly repaired and the race was started after a brief delay of two or three minutes. This race went four heats, and it lacked but a minute or two of 6 o'clock when Silver Springs, b.
g. owned by Richard Williams of Hart-

High Class Vandeville.

Following a concert programme by Tubbs' Military Band from 2 o'- clock, six high class vandeville acts, selected by Secretary Gilbert S. Raymond, direct from the Keith booking house in Boston were presented on the platform between the races and heats. In addition to these acts there were several excellently rendered tenor solos by Edward T. Connelly, the well known and popular Norwich lyric tenor, each of his songs was accompanied by the band and he sang through a megaphone.

The Concert Programme.

Mr. Connelly's selections were Ernest Ball's hit, Let the Band from the World Go By, the big Irish novelty, A Typical Tipperary, Daddy, and Chauncey O'- Connell's big hit, When Irish Eyes Are Smiling. The concert programme by Tubbs' band was as follows:
Elks' Parade March, Goblet Orphans' Overture, Offenbach
Solos, Edward T. Connelly Take It From Me, The March of the Popular Hits—Who'll Take the Place of Mary, When a Peach in Georgia Weds a Rose From Alabama, etc.

Isma and Hamel were the first artists on the free vandeville programme. They provided themselves with acrobatic appliances and won well merited applause from the big audience.
Next came Jack and Kitty DeMarco aerialists. Like the first artists Jack and Kitty delighted the audience with their numerous fancy stunts.

The Man Bros. presented a unique tight rope walking act. They did all kinds of stunts on the rope, from tumbling to acrobatic stunts. At one time both were performing on the rope at the same time. Theirs was one of the feature acts of the free vandeville programme.

Revolving Ladder Act.

Another act that made a hit with the huge audience was the revolving ladder act presented by the Dennis Bros. To say they are experts is putting it mildly. They did a number of very difficult stunts while the ladder was revolving rapidly and it almost made one dizzy to watch them.

The Australian stock whip and rope-spinning act presented by The Carlson and a man and woman, in western costume, was another winner. Both are experts in their line. Later in the afternoon Mr. Carlisle gave a laughing game devoted to the rope and the rope spinning act. In front of the grandstand, he lassoed a running pony about the neck and around all four legs several times and completed his act with a rope-spinning number.

Ride Against Death.

The big thrill of the afternoon came when Daredevil Uliven took his aerial ride against death. Holding in his teeth a leather strap attached to a pulley on a long wire suspended from a platform high above the grandstand, and down across the race track, Daredevil Uliven even slid to the ground while the big crowd held its breath. Daredevil Uliven even claims to be the only living man who has crossed Niagara Falls by this method. He made the trip in 1911 and lived to tell the tale.

The Balloon Ascension.

The balloon ascension occurred just before the final heat of the 2.30 trot, which was the last race of the day.
Prof. Harold Cates, who made the thrilling balloon ascension a year ago at the fair, is again on the job. He made a clean get-away, but as the balloon did not go up into the heavens quite high enough he did not attempt a triple parachute drop, making a double parachute drop instead. There was but very little wind and both Prof. Cates and the balloon landed in a lot not far from the fair grounds.

Appeal For Near East.

During the afternoon S. Crouch of Hartford, through the courtesy of the fair officials, made a three minute appeal from the vandeville stand, for contributions to the Near East Relief Fund, of which he is a representative of the Connecticut committee of the Near East Relief committee, told in a graphic manner of a few of the horrors of that strife-stricken land of bloodshed.

When Herbert Hoover was in Europe he described the situation in the Near East as most desperate since the signing of the armistice, said Mr. Crouch.

He said that the Near East Relief committee is trying to care for 125,000 orphans who have barely existed during the past six years, and that they are in the belief that he made the appeal.

At the close of Mr. Crouch's appeal boy and girl scouts passed among the crowds, taking up contributions, the total amounting to about $30.

Parachute Drop From Aeroplane Today There will be an added attraction at the fair this (Tuesday) afternoon in the shape of a parachute drop from an aeroplane by Prof. Harold D. Cates, the balloonist. This parachute drop will be an extra on the part of Prof. Cates as he will make his triple parachute drop from the balloon at 5 p. m. as usual.

After he cuts loose from the balloon and lands, he will load his parachute on the aeroplane which will follow him to his landing place, and when the aeroplane is about 1,000 feet above the fair grounds, in view of everybody at the fair, he will make another parachute drop landing on the fair grounds.

After his parachute drop from the aeroplane, the machine, which will be operated by Lieut. Ricker, will do a number of fancy stunts in the air. The aeroplane was in Willimantic last week during the Willimantic Elks' fair.

ANNOUNCES, BEGINNING TUESDAY, HIS ANNUAL SEPTEMBER SALE OF FURS of QUALITY and FASHION

AT PRICES MUCH LOWER THAN IN THE REGULAR SEASON Quality and Fashion Are the Outstanding and Traditional Qualities of the Peltry Sponsored by This Shop. It is Perhaps Because of This That This Annual September Sale of Furs Assumes the Dignity and Importance of an Institutional Event—a Classic of Merchandising.

The Sale has been deferred to a rather later period than usual in order to exploit the very latest-developed Fur Modes of distinction. And the prices quoted, unquestionably prove that the values exceed any foregoing event of its kind—obvious to intelligent comparison.

Despite the fur strike, the warnings of scarcity because of high cost, this is the largest collection of fashionable Furs ever assembled by this shop, at much below the current or future prices.

Macpherson Quality Furs, always appreciated for their splendid styling and exceptional values, can be purchased during this September selling event, at

COUNTY DID BEST ON SILAGE, CORN AND POTATOES

Among six leading farm commodities silage, corn and potatoes were the three best crops raised in New London county this year, according to a survey made by Leonard H. Healey, secretary of the state board of agriculture. In all of these the county showed a percentage had an average of 81 per cent, which was close to that of the county, 78 1-2
